Prayers of Intercession

Beloved in Christ, it is our duty and delight to prepare ourselves to hear again the message of the angels, and to go in heart and mind to Bethlehem, and see this thing which has come to pass, and the babe lying in a manger. Therefore, let us hear again from the holy scriptures the tale of the loving purposes of God from the first days of our sin until the glorious redemption brought us by this holy child; and let us make this house of prayer glad with our carols of praise. But first, because this of all things would rejoice Jesus' heart, let us pray to him for the needs of the whole world, and all his people; for peace upon the earth he came to save; for love and unity within the one Church he did build; for goodwill among all peoples. And particularly at this time, let us remember the poor, the cold, the hungry, the oppressed; the sick and them that mourn; the lonely and the unloved; the aged and the little children; and all who do not know the Lord Jesus, or do not love him, or who by sin have grieved his heart of love. Lastly, let us remember all those who rejoice with us, but upon another shore and in a greater light, that multitude which no one can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and with whom, in this Lord Jesus, we forevermore are one. These prayers and praises let us humbly offer up to the throne of heaven, in the words that Christ himself has taught us...

The Lord's Prayer ("debts and debtors")

Blessing and Charge

Leader: May the Christ, who, by his incarnation, gathered into one the things of heaven and earth, fill you with the sweetness of inward peace and goodwill, and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you always.

People: Alleluia!

Leader: Go forth in peace and joy.

People: Thanks be to God! Amen.

This service of nine lessons and carols from the PC(USA) Book of Common Worship originates from a 1918 Christmas Eve service at King's College Chapel, University of Cambridge, England.

*Those who are able, please stand.

CHRISTMAS EVE CANDLELIGHT SERVICE – will be held on December 24th at 5:30 p.m. Invite your friends and family to join us or invite someone you know who might be spending Christmas Eve alone. Communion will be served at our Candlelight Service. Hope everyone can join us!
